

Jarnana - Albania

As mî jep nj'erî ujî moj balluk' e prerî.
Me se tî tî jap o trendafil me erî?

Jarnana, jarnane, jarnana moj tî keqen-e.

O me dorîn tînde moj balluk' e prerî
Dora m'u ndodh zînî trendafil me erî.

Me se t'u ndodh zînî moj balluk' e prerî?
Me unazîn tînde trendafil me erî.

“Won’t you bring some water, You with the cut bangs?”

“With what shall I bring it, Fragrant rose?”

Jarnana, Jarnane May I take all your misfortunes upon me!

“Oh, with your hands, You with the cut bangs”

“But my hand is occupied, Fragrant rose.”

“With what is it occupied, You with the cut bangs?”

“With the ring that you gave me, Fragrant rose!”

Brenna brought this Tosk village song from the KorÁÎ (or KorÁa) region of Albania to the group. She learned it from ethnomusicologist Jane Sugarman who learned it from Albanian speakers living in the Lake Prespa region of Macedonia.
